SOME HUNTERS.

Under the guidance of Fat Morris and Pinky Tidwell, a party of five went hunting yesterday. They took five trusty shotguns and much ammunition, making the trip in a six cylinder automobile. Whether the action of the machine threw the hunters' sight off, or whether the rabbits, the parties of the second part, were just naturally wary, it not known. It is known, however, that the party brought home one rabbit and one of the crowd said that the animal just gripped itself to death. Pinky Tidwell was the star of the occasion. He shot thirteen times and knocked a rabbit's feet from under him. Some hunters! 170

HURT IN FIGHT.

A McClosky, chauffeur for Capt. John C. Greenway, was taken to the C. & A. Hospital in an unconscious condition about midnight Wednesday night. He wore a dancing tag and seemed to have been engaged in a fight. His face was bruised and a large scalp wound was found on the back of his head. It is reported that he had a fight and was knocked down, his head hitting a boulder and causing the wound. He remained unconscious until yesterday morning and was soon able to leave the hospital. His condition is not serious. Who he was fighting with is not known.

OFFICER RESIGNS.

Hill G. Ruff, day police officer, resigned his place on the Bisbee police force last night. Marshal Allison said that he was sorry to lose Ruff from the force because he had been one of the best officers on the force. He said that Ruff prevented the stage robbery over the divide about a year ago, had caught any number of opium dealers, was responsible for the arrest of many of the hotel thieves who have been in the district and was especially valuable in handling the bad Mexicans of the District. "His place will be hard to fill," said the Marshal.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS

A meeting of stockholders of the Bisbee Copper Mining Development Co. for election of officers will be held at Room 15 Maze Bldg., Main street, Bisbee, Arizona, on Saturday, Sept. 2nd, 1916, at 2 P. M. G. H. Livingston, Sec'y.

LODGING WANTED

The Y. W. C. A. reported that they were having a much greater demand for rooms by the teachers coming to Bisbee to teach through the winter school term than their building would accommodate. So far only a part of the teachers have arrived and already those who are here are having a great deal of trouble in securing lodgings. The Y. W. C. A. requests that all persons in the district who have extra lodging space and would care to have a school teacher occupy it, to confer with the Y. W. C. A.

RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP.

W. R. Banks, commonly known as Scotty, of the I. W. Wallace real estate office, returned from an extended trip over the northeastern states and Canada yesterday. He says he had a very fine trip and visited many of his friends and relatives. While in Brocton, Mass., he met Harry M. Quimby, who was a make-up man on the Review and old Evening Miner several years ago. Quimby wrote back to a friend here: "I met a tramp from Arizona named Banks. I fed him up and put him on the train and started him back to the land of cactus."

SILVER SERVICE ARRIVES.

Ten large boxes and barrels arrived in Bisbee yesterday from the east and were immediately sent to the Phelps-Dodge Mercantile company, which store has donated the use of one of its large display windows for the purpose of showing the silver service, given by the state of Arizona to the battleship Arizona. The silver service is one of the most elegant ever turned out in the east and is said to be a wonderful exhibition. It will be on display Sunday night and will remain here several days before being sent on to other points in the state.

SELLS AUTOS.

G. E. Jackson, agent for the Buick auto, with headquarters in Douglas, was a visitor in Bisbee yesterday afternoon and last evening. He has delivered two cars in the District during the week, one to A. W. Engelder, of Warren, and another to Henry Poppo. Jackson told of the embargo placed by the U. S. authorities in Douglas on the gasoline supplies but added that the Smelter City automobile people expected to see it lifted by Friday.

BACK FROM VACATION.

H. W. Minshall, genial night clerk at the Copper Queen Hotel, is home from an extended vacation spent in Los Angeles and San Francisco. "Mitch", as he is called by his many friends, looks better than he has for many months and declares that he feels according to his appearance. While away "Mitch" covered on the beaches of Southern California and refused an offer from one of the large movie producing companies to rejuvenate some of the parts John Bunny made famous. He preferred the salubrious climate of Arizona, however, and returned to his post in Bisbee.
